

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

A grape cream of tartar powder.
Makes pure, healthful, delicious food. No alum, no lime phosphate.

There is an infallible test by which every housewife may detect the unhealthful alum baking powders—

The label will tell

Study the label. If it does not say cream of tartar the baking powder is made from alum and must be avoided.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

John Drew has announced his intention of returning to Shakespearean comedy within the next two years.

A comedy called "The Marriage of the Star," by Alexander Bisson, author of "The Masked Ball" and other plays, will soon be produced in this country.

Gertrude Quinlan has made a favorable vaudeville debut in Boston in a sketch entitled "Zaza's Hit," by Edith Ellis Baker.

George H. Brennan, the theatrical manager, has written a book entitled "Bill Truettell, a Story of Theatrical Life," which is soon to be published.

Arnold Daly and his company of Vaudevillians made quite a hit in the playlet by Mark Twain, entitled "Becoming An Editor," in a New York theater recently.

Frederick Paulding's play "The Great Question," recently given its first production at the Majestic Theatre, New York, proved a well written and clever play, but too depressing and glooming to be popular.

Charles Frohman has accepted a new play by Clyde Fitch, entitled "The Happy Marriage," which will be produced in New York with Doris Keane and in London with Mary Moore in the leading part.

"Dante," a play by Mrs. Helen Dur-rant Rose, an American woman, was successfully produced in Verona a short time ago by Ermete Novelli, who appeared in the principal role.
Special music was written for the play by Mascagni.

Lee Kohlmar, a young actor who has been playing a German dialect role in "A Girl at the Helm" this season, is to appear next August in a new play that will give him an opportunity to show his talent in a quaint German character.

"The Revelation," the first in "the cycle" written by the Rev. Henry Knott, rector of All Saints' Episcopal church, Ravenswood, Ill., will be produced in Elgin, Ill., November 21, for the first time. Miss Mary Shaw will play the leading female role.

"Mike" Donlin, the former captain and heavy batter of the Giants, supported by his wife, Miss Mabel Hite, and company, is in vaudeville now and has made a great hit upon his first appearance in Vincent Bryan's one-act musical comedy skit, "Stealing Home."

Henry Miller, now playing in "The Big Divide," and considered one of the most popular matinee idols, has accepted for early production this season a new modern comedy from the pen of Mrs. Rida Johnson Young, author of "Brown of Harvard." Rehearsals are soon to begin.

The Shuberts are extremely busy just now preparing for the production.
In the near future of several plays, which have been accepted by them.
Among them are "Havana," "The Blue Mouse," "The Goddess of Reason," "The Vampire" and "The Paradise of Mahomet." The rehearsals have already begun.

Mary Mannering has opened her season in a new play by Edwin Tilson, entitled "The Struggle," which tells the story of a woman who endeavors to blot out her past. The play, which contains many strong dramatic scenes, is said to be well written, and the critics give it considerable praise. The play is soon to be brought to New York for the final test and, if successful, will be retained on the boards for the rest of the season.

A bottle of Prickly Ash Bitters kept in the house and used occasionally means good health to the whole household. For sale by all druggists.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head off those early colds. That's surely better.
That's why they are called Preventics.
Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child. If there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

WEATHER FORECAST.

Published By Authority of the Secretary of Agriculture.

(Issued at New Orleans.)
For Palestine and vicinity: Tonight and Thursday fair. Colder.
Frost tonight with a temperature about 38 degrees.
Minimum temperature, 44.
Maximum temperature, 81.

Weather Conditions.
The storm over Texas Tuesday has about disappeared, although high temperature (68 degrees) still lingers on the Gulf coast. This storm was attended by rain from the Gulf northward through the central and lower Mississippi valley, and the Ohio and Tennessee valleys. The high pressure over Montana has developed and moved rapidly to the central Mississippi valley, carrying freezing weather over Missouri, Oklahoma and North Texas. A cold front is now over Wyoming, where the temperature is 6 degrees below zero, which is the coldest reported this season for the entire country. It is raining this morning in western New York and Pennsylvania, and snowing in Colorado and the Texas Panhandle. Freezing weather is expected in Central Texas Thursday, and frost in southern section, excepting the coast.

Fair and colder weather is indicated tonight and Thursday in the vicinity of Palestine, with frost.
G. Hass Hagen,
Official in Charge.

Some Good Plays.

An advance notice says:
When in New York last summer J.
N. Rentfrow secured good plays to be used by his big repertoire show, "Jolly Pathfinders," this season. This means a large outlay of money, but Mr. Rentrow is determined to please his patrons, and with that end in view he has secured plays, some of which have not been released for repertoire, including "The Great Milky Way,"
"When the Bell Tolls," "Camille," "The Devil" and many others of special interest.

The name of Rentfrow and his "Pathfinders," who appear at the New Temple Theatre all next week, have for many seasons been synonymous with admirable dramatic productions, clean, wholesome and absorbing plays, interpreted by most excellently balanced casts.

The company bids fair to excel even the success of previous seasons. The theater-going public has therefore every reason to expect a first-class dramatic show next week at popular prices. Two ladies will be admitted free on one 30c ticket on Monday, if reserved before 6 p. m. A bargain matinee will be given on Wednesday afternoon, when that great piece, "Women Who Dared," will be presented.

GRITTINGS.

This celebrated old timer was discovered by a poultryman who observed the fine effects of gravel on his hens. Made from pure New Hampshire granite. See J. S. Temple for fine grits. 4-1f

Gummed Labels, All Kinds.
Gummed labels of all kinds, every shape and design. Samples and prices at the Herald office. 1f

About Fire Alarms.
Members of the local fire department request the Herald to ask the public in turning in an alarm of fire by telephone to designate a flue fire when the fire is such. By that means the department will be saved runs by the entire equipment, as only one team and crew are necessary, as a rule, at such times. In doing this the other equipment will be left at the station as protection in case a real fire is needed by them. In answering an alarm of fire, as a rule, everything in the station, with all the men, goes out. This is not necessary one time in a dozen, and never so when the fire is a burning flue.

She Asked Too Much.
Willie Green was not only chewing gum, but had his feet sprawled out in the aisle in a most unbecoming manner.
"Willie," said the teacher, "take that gum out of your mouth this instant, and put in your feet."—Harper's Weekly.

Notice to the Public.
I have a full line of nice dry lumber for sale at a reasonable price.
Will take corn in exchange for lumber. Nine miles east of Palestine, Rocky Point road. Two and one-half miles south of Neches.
10-131nd W. H. Baty.

A Business Change.
L. P. Maynard has bought the interest of W. B. Krey in the Union Cigar Store, and in future will conduct same. Mr. Maynard invites all his friends and customers to call, and promises the very best treatment, etc. 16-1f

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Nobody ever heard of a pretty girl who envied an ugly one her brains.
The reason a man enjoys going to the theatre is he wouldn't if it was with his family.
The meanest thing about mean people is how they don't care what you think of them for it.
The only compensation about not being rich is the way you can pretend to despise somebody who is.
No matter how smart a woman thinks a man is, she is clever enough to flatter him by making him believe she thinks it's a lot more than she does.—New York Press.

Flue Fire.

The fire department responded to an alarm of fire out on John street this morning. It was only a flue burning out, and the lady at the house had the good judgment to send in the alarm as a flue burning, thus saving the company useless trouble and expense, as a light wagon and two men were all that was necessary to send out.
